

Understanding the Essentials of Grazing Management

Tuesday, June 2, 2020

Noble Research Institute Coffey Ranch

16877 State Hwy 32

Marietta, OK 73448

Agenda

|           |  |  |
|-----------|--|--|
| 8:30 a.m. | Registration   |  |
| 9 a.m.    | Introductions <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- Identifying your goals and objectives</li><li>- How to assess your resource inventory</li></ul>                          | Hugh Aljoe, director of producer relationsJeff Goodwin, conservation stewardship leader and pasture and range consultant |
| Noon      | Lunch <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>- How to determine stocking rate</li><li>- How to determine a grazing strategy</li><li>- Establishing a contingency plan</li></ul> | Brian Hays, pasture and range consultantClark Roberts, ranch operations assistant  |
| 3 p.m.    | Questions/Adjourn  |  |

Registration Fee $25; includes lunch. Registration fee goes up to $35 for those who register within one week of the event. • Registration info:

www.noble.org/events