

Using Grazing to Manage Wildlife Habitat

Tuesday, October 29, 2019

Cross Timbers Wildlife Management Area

7761 Stockton Road

Burneyville, OK 73430

Agenda

8:30 a.m.	Registration
9 a.m.	Overview of Grazing for Wildlife	TBD
	Stop 1 - Crosstimbers WMA Overview - Cow-Calf Grazing - Stockers	Brandon Baker, Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation Jeff Goodwin, conservation stewardship leader and pasture and range consultant
	Stop 2 - Monitoring - Forage Quality	Brian Hays, pasture and range consultant Russell Stevens, wildlife and range consultant Brandon Baker, Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation Ryon Walker, Ph.D., livestock consultant
Noon	Lunch & Learn Sponsored by Quail Forever	Laura McIver, Quail Forever
1 p.m.	Stop 3 - Brush control - Mechanical - Herbicide	Brandon Baker, Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation

No registration fee • Registration info: www.noble.org/events

- Fire

James Locke, soils and crops consultant
Russell Stevens, wildlife and range consultant

Stop 4

- Native Grassland Restoration
- Invasive Plant Considerations

Brandon Baker, Oklahoma Department of Wildlife Conservation
TBD, Invasive Plant Council Member

4 p.m. Adjourn

